

SQA Results Day

SQA results will be delivered on Tuesday 8th August. Your certificate may be delivered at any point during the day.

To confirm SQA hold the correct address and personal details for you, and to access your results by text or email, you should sign up for MySQA

If your results are not what you expected, Pastoral Care staff will be available on Thursday 10th August. To book a telephone appointment, please complete the Glow form.

What is Appeals 2023?

Appeals 2023 is a free service that you can use if you have concerns about a grade (or grades) on your results certificate.

Appeals 2023 has a different process to the one used last year as alternative assessment evidence will not be looked at.

This year, if you appeal your grade, a senior marker will carry out a marking review of your SQA-marked assessments.

This is not a re-mark.

A marking review checks that:

- all parts of your SQA-assessments have been marked;
- the marking is in line with national standards;
- the marks given for each answer have been totalled correctly; and
- the correct result has been entered on our system.

Please note that after being reviewed, your result could stay the same, go up or go down.

You can appeal directly to SQA or ask the school to do this for you by putting your request in writing to CHayes@hyndland-sec.glasgow.sch.uk.

The service will open on Results Day, Tuesday 8 August at 9am, and the learner direct submission deadlines are:

- Tuesday 15 August at 11:59pm for priority appeals
- Tuesday 29 August at 11:59pm for all other appeals

Your appeal can be prioritised if you have a conditional place at university or college, or in training or employment that depends on your grade.

SQA will provide further information on Appeals 2023 for candidates prior to results being published
